

'Stepping into Diversity': Interfaith Youth Filmmaking Project

Application Form

As part of the 'Stepping into Diversity' project, Interfaith Glasgow (IFG) and West of Scotland Regional Equality Council (WSREC) are looking to recruit young people from different faith communities in Glasgow to form a core project group.

The project will focus on building trust and friendship, mutual learning about one another's faith traditions and places of worship, and thinking about the role of religion in and around Glasgow.

By early 2014 the group will have created two short films; one giving an insight into the faith lives of young people in Glasgow, and another showcasing positive examples of interfaith dialogue and engagement.

Please fill in the following application form if you would like to get involved in the project, indicating which aspects you would like to be involved in.

We hope to gather all responses by the 21st June, and invite all applicants to a taster session mid July. You will receive a response and invitation from us at the beginning of July.

If possible, please fill this form out online: <http://bit.ly/13jRRZk>

Alternatively, you can mail your completed form to us: Interfaith Glasgow, 523 Shields Road, Glasgow, G41 2RF
