

DIRECTORY OF USEFUL CONTACTS

© Interfaith Scotland

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Interfaith Glasgow. We are a project of Interfaith Scotland and primarily funded by the Scottish Government. Our aim is to increase interfaith engagement through exciting new initiatives which seek to foster mutual understanding and friendship between people from different faith, belief and non-faith backgrounds.

This directory of useful contacts has been created to give faith and belief groups and organisations that work with them the opportunity to share their contacts with the wider interfaith community. This directory was compiled by individual groups and organisations who supplied their contact details to be shared with others and to allow them to be contacted. The information provided here is not an exhaustive list of faith and belief organisations in Glasgow but instead a directory of organisations in Glasgow who are interested in or involved in interfaith activity.

A “Guide to Places of Worship in Glasgow” can be found the website of the Glasgow Forum of Faiths.

The information contained within this directory reflects the information provided by the supplying organisations. The Interfaith Glasgow project cannot be held responsible for any contact details contained within this directory which are incorrect at the time of issue or are found to incorrect thereafter. Please note the interfaith Glasgow project cannot held responsible for the information contained on any external websites

Interfaith Glasgow will update this directory once a year and this will give the opportunity for contact details to be updated and for organisations to be removed /added as necessary.

If you have any questions or comments about this directory please contact us at
